

By forcing the stations to broadcast this misinformation about Sen. John Kery they are breaching the trust of the American people with respect to the airways. The only organization to remedy this situation is the FCC. Its a shame that the FCC is now simply an extention of the Bush campaign. If Mr. Powell had any honorable qualities he would resign if he couln't get this propaganda from being forced on the public airways. The Bush people simply have no shame what so ever.